GRADUATION SPEAKER

GOVERNOR BANGERTER was born in Granger, Utah, and attended Cyprus High School, Brigham Young University and the University of Utah.

A building contractor and a veteran of 25 years in Utah's home-building and real estate development industries, he is past president of NHB Construction.

He has been a past member of one of the advisory committees at Utah Tech, and also of the State Constitutional Revision Committee, and former chairman of the advisory board for LDS Social Services in Utah. He has also served on Utah's Job Training Council, and as Utah chairman of the apprenticeship program for the Home Builders of America.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

ARNOLD CHRISTENSEN has served in the Utah State Senate since 1978, and is currently President of the Senate.

He is also a member of the Executive Committee, The National Conference of State Legislatures, as well as serving on the Executive Committee of The Council of State Governments. Professionally, Mr. Christensen is an electrical contractor.

He is active in the scouting program, and is himself an Eagle Scout. In other community service he is a member of the Advisory Board of the Utah Symphony, and is on the Governing Board of Cottonwood Hospital.

By authorization of the Utah State Board of Regents, Utah Technical College awards Mr. Christensen an honorary Doctor of Vocational Technology degree.

RICHARD P. LINDSAY is Managing Director of Public Communications/Special Affairs for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and has served there since July, 1983.

Previously he has been a member of the Utah State Legislature. Additionally, he has served as Director, Utah Division of Family Services, and Executive Director, Utah State Department of Social Services.

He has been active in community affairs, serving as a Board Member, Utah Blue Cross; Utah Cancer Society; and on the State Advisory Committee, Utah Department of Employment Security.

Richard Lindsay is recipient of the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, awarded by Utah Technical College under authorization of the Utah State Board of Regents.
